

SEPAC

Greenfield Special Education
Parent Advisory Council

*You are cordially invited to a meeting of the Special Education
Parents' Advisory Council (SEPAC) for the Greenfield Public Schools!*

What is a SEPAC?

- The Special Education Parents' Advisory Council is a volunteer organization of parents, caregivers, and others concerned with ensuring high quality learning experiences for students with disabilities
- The SEPAC is a place and a way for families to share their experience within the Greenfield Public Schools
- The SEPAC provides education to caregivers and input on how to improve services and support for students enrolled in the Greenfield Public Schools

Why join a SEPAC?

- SEPACs brings the community together to share experiences, knowledge, and support
- Stay informed about special education policies, resources, and strategies
- Connect with other caregivers, educators, and professionals to collaborate on solutions that benefit students enrolled in the Greenfield Public Schools
- Joining a SEPAC can empower caregivers to actively participate in decision-making processes that impact a child's education

Meeting Dates

We will meet each month at the Greenfield Middle School Library, 5:00-6:30 pm, or via Google Meet. The Middle School is located at 195 Federal Street in downtown Greenfield.
